AWARD-WINNING CHEF HOSTS HOSPITAL FUNDRAISER

Champion noodle chef, Hung Ching-Lung will be guest of honour at an exclusive food and wine tasting event being held to raise funds for the $100 million campaign to build a new Medical & Surgical Centre at Lions Gate Hospital in North Vancouver.

Chef Hung, who is three-time winner of the National Beef Noodle Awards in Taiwan, is a culinary judge at the upcoming TAIWANfest in Vancouver, and he will be showcasing new appetizers at the West Vancouver location of Chef Hung Taiwanese Beef Noodle on Wednesday, September 6.

The chef, who is known as “The King of Taiwanese Noodles,” will be introducing a series of dishes soon to be appearing on the menu at the five Chef Hung outlets in Metro Vancouver.

“This is a unique event that offers a rare opportunity for Vancouver noodle lovers to meet Chef Hung,” says Stephanie Io, Development Officer at the Foundation. “As well offering an opportunity to explore Taiwanese food and try local wines, our guests will be supporting our community campaign to bring 21st Century medical care to the North Shore.”

The exclusive event is generously co-sponsored by the Summerland Estate Winery in the Okanagan and the owners will be serving wine for the event.

Tickets for the Chef Hung Food & Wine Fundraiser cost $28. To register for the event, contact Stephanie Io at Lions Gate Hospital Foundation. Tel: 604 984 5774, Email: Stephanie.io@vch.ca
